It's time that decent, law-abiding, hard-working Brits had their voices heard!

ANTI-CHRISTIAN DISCRIMINATION

STOP ANTI-CHRISTIAN DISCRIMINATION

DESPITE the fact that most Britons no longer attend church regularly, we must recognise that Britain is a nation that was founded on the principles of Christianity. However, for a long time, our Christian heritage has been slowly eroded thanks to a campaign of anti-Christian bias and discrimination. A long series of outrages show that Christianity in Britain is under assault:

A British Airways employee suffered a ruling which allowed the airline to stop her wearing a cross at work.

BBC

A community nurse from Somerset, Caroline Petrie, 45, was suspended for offering to pray for an elderly woman

Telegraph

A Christian nurse, Shirley Chaplin, who wore her cross every day for 30 years, was banned from working on hospital wards by Royal Devon and Exeter NHS Trust after she failed to hide the necklace cross.

Telegraph

Colin Atkinson, who worked for Wakefield Housing, displayed a Christian cross on his work van's dashboard and was brought up on disciplinary charges.

Daily Mail

A foster mother was struck off the register for allowing a Muslim girl in her care to convert to Christianity.
